BACK, BACK, BACK TO INDIANA

Words by Gus Kahn; music by Egbert Van Alstyne

Oh! don't you hear that whistle blowing!
Oh, oh, oh, --Goodbye! the Northbound train will soon be going!
Oh, oh, oh, --I've been lonesome down in Dixie,
Just as lonesome as a boy could be;
And if your girl lived along the Wabash you'd be singing
just like me!

Chorus:

Back, back, back to Indiana!
Where the Wabash flows,
To my Hoosier Rose
Back, back through the fields of clover,
We'll drive down to town and bring the parson over.
So long old Savannah,
You're a good old town, I know!
But the best thing here, is the first train, dear.
Back, back, back to Indiana

2nd verse:

I'll be so happy in the morning
Oh, oh, oh,--
Because I'll see the town that I was born in!
Oh, oh, oh,--
There a lonely girl is waiting,
But I'll make her mighty happy soon;
And again we'll roam along the Wabash 'neath the Indiana moon.

Chorus:
